OF TATTERSALL'S CLUB
SYDNEY

Christmas
Greetings

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

In regard to the Club premises, progress has been made to satisfy the City Council that the Club is moving ahead with its plans to comply with the Fire Regulation Notice, in conjunction with upgrading work on the premises. The building sub-committee now has plans in progress and will shortly be in a position to properly evaluate the economics and finalise an acceptable layout. Once the evaluation is completed plans will be submitted to members to enable the proposal to proceed.

I am pleased to inform members that the publication of "The History of Tattersall's Club" is in the printer's hands, and should be available shortly. The author, Mr Joe Andersen has supplied a brief introduction to the outline of this work (see page 9), and we are honoured that highly-esteemed Club member Sir Laurence Street, KCMG, KStJ, The Chief Justice of New South Wales and Lt Governor, has agreed to write the preface to the book. This publication should prove most popular with all members, and with this in mind the committee has decided to forward a copy of the history to members on an approval basis. You will receive your copy by mail, with the cost of $20 debited to your account. If, after examination, you decide you do not wish to retain the history, please return your copy to the office.

On Friday, February 1, 1985, through the courtesy of the Sydney Turf Club, we have been invited to host a "Tribute to Lester Piggott Luncheon" to be held in the Club Room, 12.30 for 1.00 pm, to which members and their friends are cordially invited. Notices will be posted throughout the Club and tickets can be obtained from the office. Lester will be interviewed by ace race-caller Ian Craig, and should prove most interesting and informative as he is regarded as the world's best jockey. Riders such as the calibre of George Moore, "Scobie" Breasley and Ron Hutchinson, who rode with him and against him, for so many years, have no hesitation in naming him as the premier rider in the world. I can thoroughly recommend this sporting luncheon to all members, and particularly as Lester is expected to announce his retirement at the end of the 1985 season it is an opportunity not to be missed. I personally would like to thank Jim Fleming, Sydney Turf Club chairman, for giving Tattersall's Club the opportunity to host the luncheon.

In this magazine you will find information about the various Christmas activities during the week prior to Christmas — our star attraction being The Chairman's Cocktail Party to be held on Wednesday, December 19, at 6.30 pm — and of course the Christmas activities on December 19, 20 and 21 with wonderful prizes — please bring your ladies and enjoy yourselves.

Our own Club's next race meeting will be held at Randwick Racecourse on Tuesday, January 1, 1985, and I hope members and their friends will be able to attend that meeting.

As 1984 draws to a close, our thoughts turn to Christmas and I would like to take this opportunity, on behalf of the committee and myself to wish members and their families a very happy and safe Christmas, and may 1985 bring with it, good health, happiness and peace of mind. My committee and secretary Norm Smith have been fully supportive and given me great assistance in my first nine months as chairman of this wonderful Club and I thank them.

Norman Smith, our Club secretary, is retiring at the end of the month and I would like to put on record our grateful thanks to him for his expertise and great service to the Club over the past eight years. Norman has placed the Club on a firm footing to face, what all clubs are experiencing, a difficult time ahead. Norman will go down in our Club's history as possibly the best secretary Tattersall's has ever had. Bob McIntyre, the newly-appointed secretary, has had vast experience and shows outstanding abilities and great promise to follow the high standard set by Mr Smith. To the staff of Tattersall's Club, my grateful thanks for your fine work through 1984.

GRAPHIC COVER ON THE COVER

I'm a great admirer of famed artist, Randolph Caldecott. He had a touch all of his own.

Caldecott's Christmas world was a mixture of his memories of a country childhood and of an invented ideal eighteenth century. Christmas gave him the chance to leave the town and all modern inventions behind. He could slip his people into elegant or preposterous fancy dress, surround them with snow and make them happily warm, dancing, over-eating or, better still, careering round the countryside in coaches or on horseback. To get to his dream world you had to drive through snowdrifts in danger from highwaymen but when you arrived you could be sure to find a hunt or a feast or a party well supplied with beautiful girls, crusty old characters and children — what a wealth of talent.

His cover is surrounded with our own decoration.

In the spirit of Christmas I thought I'd produce a quote or two . . .

The only way to have a friend is to be one. — Emerson

Laugh and the world laughs with you, snore and you sleep alone.
— A. Burgess

As a fan of Oscar Wilde I like his observation: Experience is the name everyone gives to their mistakes.

TOM POWELL — 90 NOT OUT

Grand sporting and Club identity Tom Powell is always good for the latest story — come join him at his 90th birthday luncheon on Monday, January 7, 1985 (see page 8).

WINING, DINING AND CLUB NEWS

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS
PRINCE ANDREJ . . .

SOVEREIGN ORDER OF SAINT JOHN OF JERUSALEM

The Grand Prior of Australia, Dr Douglas J. Hodges, GCSJ issued invitations to the investiture conducted by The Grand Master, His Royal Highness, Prince Andrej at Saint Mary's Church, 264 Miller Street, North Sydney on Friday, November 9, 1984. It was followed by a reception and dinner at Tattersall's Club. Many Tattersall's members were present at this very auspicious investiture and dinner.

Mr Archibald McLardie arranged a special evening at Tattersall's Club.

Distinguished guests included Speaker of the House of Representatives The Hon Dr Harry Jenkins and Mrs Jenkins.

They enjoyed a very pleasant evening in the dining area at Tattersall's.

Good mates and Tattersall's members Gil Stone and Bill Kelleher were sighted enjoying a meal with friends in the Tattersall's dining area. As executives of Rothmans their co-operation and help in Winfield sponsorship of sport has been outstanding. Very pleasant people doing a great service — and all good sports benefit too. — Ed.

Allen Rennix with wife Mollie staged a happy farewell to Olga Bradley. It was a happy Tattersall's scene. Guests included Carolyn McDonald, Loena Patterson, Don James and his wife Kitch. A very pleasant and memorable evening was had by all.

*****
Mr and Mrs Bill Wood arranged a jolly family get-together. Present were Mr and Mrs R. Austen, Mr and Mrs D. Griffith, Mr C. Wood (Channel 10 Adelaide) and Miss A. Smith (Channel 7 Adelaide). In the party also were grandchildren Tom and Rachel Griffiths. Mrs Helen Wood (celebrating her 85th birthday) was unable to attend but she was remembered by all present.

*****
Belinda Bushby had a sixth birthday party at Tattersall's. It was a night to remember with proud member Geoff Bushby tending his daughter's every wish. Grandparents and sister Emma joined the celebrations too.

It was a dual birthday event at Tattersall's. Clarrie and Hazel Anderson, with daughters Robyn and Julie, were celebrating Clarrie and Robyn's birthdays.

"Maitre de Adrian and dining room staff were very attentive," said Clarrie.

The background music complimented the delightful meal.

NEW YORK ATHLETIC CLUB ACCOUNTS

Visiting overseas members on reciprocal membership please note.

Due to the problems that have arisen in collecting the accounts of transient guests, a new policy of payment for members visiting the New York Athletic Club has been instituted.

An itemised statement will be presented upon departure of charges posted to-date. Upon presentation of the partial bill at check-out time, the NYAC will now require payment by cheque or cash for this partial billing. A complete statement will follow as in the past.

In the future, regardless of the amount of our member's bill, no more than the agreed amount of $500 will be paid by the New York Athletic Club.

Would members please peruse this new policy in order that they may be prepared to make payment of their account prior to departure.

*****
Member and perfect host Terry Gavan with wife Nell arranged an engagement celebration for Miss Robyn Campbell and John Dennett.

Guests included Lady Campbell, Miss Susan Campbell, Julie Campbell and David Campbell.

The two families, being very close friends for many years, joined in celebration. It was a joyful happy evening and one to be remembered by Robyn and John.

Tattersall's members in the Club. Trainer Bart Cummings, auctioneer John Inglis and top business executive and horse-breeder, Ross Cribb, OBE.

The very active Tattersall's Ski Club celebrated the end of a 1984 ski season. It was a delightful dinner and dance on the fourth floor. In the group we noticed Mr and Mrs Phillip King, Mr and Mrs Basil Phillips, Mr and Mrs Richard McPhail, Glen Barry and Carolyn Jackson. Ski secretary Anthony Berkman and his charming wife with guests Mr and Mrs Robert Leece made up the happy party. There's no doubt ski people really enjoy the friendship that goes beyond the snowy slopes.

*****
Ken Sievers organised a wedding anniversary group for Eunice and Brian Worrall, Elizabeth and Paul Notting, Kathleen and Graham Laws. Also attending were Margaret and Harold McLean with Ken and Connie Stevens. It was an excellent fun evening at Tattersall's.
*****

Reay and Kath Eakin invited guests to celebrate birthdays of Stephen and Jacinta. Seven husbands and wives were in the party. Those present were sorry Angela and Lawrence with husband and wife were unable to attend.

Food and service were in keeping with Tattersall's Club and a most enjoyable evening resulted. It was interesting to note Jacinta's horse-loving husband was unable to be present — he was tendering the birth of a foal. At last report everything went according to plan.

*****

Long-standing member Dennis Komminatos celebrated his 83rd birthday at Tattersall's.

Ten pleasant people were in the party. Dennis announced his retirement from active participation in business.

A grand performance from a very popular man. We wish him well for his retirement years.

It seems ages ago I promised happy Club member Brian Cassidy I would "broadcast" his great performance at the Great Schools Golf Day. Brian fired the magnificent score of 47 points to win at Manly. Congratulations to a very pleasant person. — Ed.

Well-known Tattersall's Club member Graeme Pash won the Civil Engineering Excellence Award. Governor of NSW, Sir James Rowland, made the presentation. We offer our congratulations to Graeme. It's a pleasure to see one of our members achieve the excellence of this prodigious award.

THE HISTORY OF TATTERSALL'S CLUB 1858-1983

"Not many people regard history as enthralling reading matter. This is mainly due to the sterile manner in which it was presented to them at school, a humourless recital of facts and figures, dates and short biographies of important figures. Any pleasure was usually obtained by fleshing out these chronological skeletons with romantic conjecturing by the individual reader.

Great writers and historians have seen history in many guises, none of which are applicable to this work, but it is interesting to read some of their comments. Voltaire, the revolutionary, said that history is a portrayal of crimes and misfortunes and Edward Gibbon, author of the monumental Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, seemed to agree when he wrote that history was little more than a register of the crimes, follies and misfortunes of mankind. Others saw history as a more personal matter. Emerson thought that possibly there was no history, only biography and Carlyle, the great Scottish historian, concluded that the history of the world is the biography of great men. On a somewhat reduced level, Carlyle appears to have come closest to what I have endeavoured to portray, the use of the male gender being particularly apt.

However, there are no overwhelming personalities or outstanding events which were readily apparent to non-members, or, in many cases, to contemporary members. Hearsay and unsubstantiated matter of any kind have been excluded to ensure that this history is as accurate as many hours of research and re-writing can make it. At the same time a strong narrative line has been maintained throughout which, combined with some two hundred drawings and photographs, will bring a great deal of pleasure to members and their friends and many opportunities for pleasant reminiscing in years to come.

The history is divided into three periods. The first, from 1858 to 1891, describes the Club's modest beginnings, as a betting medium, in a Pitt Street hotel and the gradual improvement in accommodation and public regard until the decision was made to build the first independent premises at 204 Pitt Street. This building has recently been acquired by City Tattersall's and incorporated into their extended premises.

The second period covers the years from 1891, when the new premises were occupied, to 1927, when it was decided to move to Elizabeth Street.

The third period brings the story up to 1983, the 125th anniversary of the Club's foundation.

The book contains a wealth of information which should appeal to members and non-members alike and, with only 3,000 copies being printed, demand is expected to be heavy.

A special collector's edition will also be published and will be for sale at a price in keeping with its superior quality."

Author Joe Anderson

SKI CONDITIONS AT BEST NEAR END OF SEASON

It has often been said that skiers judge a season by the skiing conditions they find during their particular "week in the snow". Those Tattersall's skiers who confined themselves to either of our July outings would judge 1984 as only marginally better than 1982 or 1983. However, for those who skied later in the year the season ranks as one of the best in recent times.

Graham Smith was one of the lucky ones to return in August and find excellent conditions. George Andrews and Peter Evans, and families, were seen at Perisher during the October long weekend when the skiing and weather were brilliant. The official season was extended for one week after the long weekend and while the warm days softened the snow, it was still very skiable.

The success of two weeks' skiing in America earlier this year by some Tattersall's skiers, has tempted them to again plan to visit Aspen in February 1985. From the many overseas packages being offered the best value appear to be with David Withers of Travel Plan or Steins, both of whom are widely experienced in arranging overseas ski vacations.

The New South Wales Government has announced its decision to commence work on construction of the "ski tube" to operate from below Thredbo to Perisher Village with provision for extension to the Blue Cow resort if and when it is developed.

The ski tube, which is planned to operate in 1986, is still a very controversial topic with skiers and ski groups; some see it as making an already-expensive sport even more so, while others consider it the answer to the serious traffic congestion on the road into Perisher and Smiggins. Whatever the view held, work has already commenced at the Thredbo Valley end of the scheme.

The committee of Tattersall's Ski Club wish to thank members for their support during 1984 and also thank the committees of Roslyn and Wirruna for again making their lodge facilities available to us. We also thank the office staff of the Club for their help throughout the year. To all friends of the Ski Club we wish a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

ROGERS BROTHERS ARE CHAMPIONS!

Great Double to Ron and Neil

The Rogers brothers, Ron and Neil, continue to outclass the opposition in all tournaments in the one-wall handball circuit.

Ron won this year's State Singles Championship in masterly fashion defeating Neil in straight sets in the final.

Ron went on to decisively take out the Bondi Club's Singles Championship when he downed Noel Vella, also in straight sets, for the 1984 title.

He then teamed with Neil to hold their State Doubles title convincingly beating Tamarama's champions Don Hudson and Frank Caldwell.

Neil has now won the State Doubles title six times teaming with Ron on five occasions and once with Alex Hillston. Ron was unable to compete in that year, 1981, because of a serious knee injury.

Ron's five doubles titles combined with his singles victory in the State Championships coupled with his magnificent exploits in the Tattersall's Plate make him the player to beat in any tournament.

Gary Stubbs is the winner of four State Doubles titles with three different partners while he has also been the runner-up twice and third placegetter on two occasions.

The 1984 championships, however, belong to the Rogers brothers.

They overcame stiff opposition to earn their place in the final against Don Hudson and Frank Caldwell.

Their match in the semi-finals against the Bondi doubles combination, Noel Vella and Reg Chappel, was closely contested with the score never varying by more than two points.

Compared with the dream run their opponents in the final enjoyed the Rogers' duo were forced to endure what must have seemed to them something like the thirty years' war.

This stiff opposition may have come as a blessing in disguise because they were able to provide their final opponents with such a dedicated approach to the game that their grip on the title never appeared to ease.

It was grand final sport of the standard that produced victories with the trophy secure on the walls of the Sportsman's Room for another year.

Michael O'Dea promoted the doubles championship in the 1973 season and has supported it since that year.

Club Championships

The Club championships are progressing too slowly, and more action is needed on the courts.

Eddie Charlton and Keith Abrams after playing in the 1984 Snooker Tournament. Eddie required all the colours to win and in his own inimitable style did JUST THAT.

PLENTY HAPPENING IN BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER AREA

Your billiards and snooker sub-committee are continually endeavouring to excite activity on the second floor. Evidence of this, was our recently-successful Round Robbin Snooker Tournament held on October 15. The winner received $600, second $200. Terry Anson played brilliantly and ran out an easy winner, having won his entire six matches.

Eugene Piekarski, who was runner-up in our last annual snooker tournament, again filled that position in the round robin.

It is our intention to conduct either round-robin or mini-tournaments on a monthly basis. The second round robbin was held on November 1 and was again a great success. The winner and runner-up were John Hoyle and Peter Twigg respectively.

Presentation night for the 1984 tournaments was again a wonderful success.

As always the ladies had a wonderful night. Although only 60 guests attended the lack of numbers was compensated by the quality of service. Congratulations to our office female staff, they worked tirelessly during the evening, presenting the lady guests with bouquets, and selling raffle tickets. Background piano was a popular ingredient.

A beautiful smorgasbord together with table wines, rounded off a beautiful evening.

Professional Help for Members

Professional snooker player Paddy Morgan will be taking up duties on a three-months trial period, beginning on December 1, 1984. Your billiards and snooker committee have arranged for Paddy not only to maintain our four tables but to give coaching lessons to members at a reasonable charge. Tipping cues, maintaining and buying any required accessories will be part of his duties, together with assisting the committee to run and mark future tournaments.

For all forthcoming tournaments please watch the second floor notice board.

Remember, chalk your cue before you miscue, not after.

See you all on the second floor.

SWIM SEASON UNDER WAY

After Third Floor Facility Improvements

Well the time has at last arrived when all good swimmers should get moving for the new racing season.

Unfortunately training in the pool has been suspended owing to structural building improvements on the third floor.

However I have noticed Gordon Salier, John Ward and Roger Clissold putting some good work in the gymnasium.

The bill of fare for the new season will include weekly races over 40 yards for "Tony" McSweeney's Silver Sharpe Trophy, Monthly Point Scores donated by John and David Keating, the Tom Powell Trophy for individual wins, the Jack Mandel Family Event donated by Adrian Abbott, all 80 yards events to be swum every Thursday for the Ken Ranger Trophy and the season will conclude with Club A and B grade championships over 40 and 80 yards for trophies donated by M.J. Bartley, Esq and Bruce McHugh, Esq plus the Ted Joye Honour Event donated by Ian Joye, Esq.

Am hopeful that the first race over 40 yards will take place on Tuesday, 6th inst, Melbourne Cup Day.

The big event of the month was the Presentation Evening and Dance arranged and compered by John Keating. John thanked the various donors for their generosity in a few well-chosen words and introduced Club chairman "Tony" McSweeney who was in great form in the distribution of prizes which contributed to the success of the function ably assisted by Col Bowes.

Johnny Ward, who was the winner of the Silver Sharpe Trophy, responded on behalf of the swimmers, also thanking the various donors for their support over the years.

The writer of this epistle has been out of action for some time owing to a tilt with a motor truck, but luckily like Don Quixote escaped serious injury.

Our assistant secretary, Alex McLellan has been hospitalised during the last month. I'm happy to state that he will be back on deck for the opening event.

A special vote of thanks to Alan Ball and Col Bowes for their successful running of the off-season's 100 yards event donated by Jack Levy and Norm Rogers. Thanks again.

News of Ian and Ted Joye, who have been overseas, are expected back early in the month in preparation for the Family Event.

Sir Talbot Duckmanton, looking in the pink of condition after his sojourn in London, is anxiously awaiting the completion of facilities enabling him to dash over his 100-lap course.

Noticed Johnny Fuller, who paid us a flying visit from Europe, giving the punching ball a thrashing and then sprinted over the short course of 40 yards in racing parlance on the bit in 18 seconds.

Debonair Johnny Stubbs married Virginia, the lovely daughter of Eric Collins and hiked off to Honolulu for their honeymoon. Latest reports are that both bride and bridegroom are doing well.

CLUB PERSONALITIES AND SPORTSMEN SERIES

HARRY TURNER IS VERY FIT

He quotes Dr David Callanan from the Cumberland College of Health and Sciences:

"Fitness is a measurement of a person's capacity to pump oxygen around the body."

For members' information here is a run-down on Harry.

Harry Turner, 42, 182 cm, 71.5 kg, married with a 13 year-old daughter, is a self-employed accountant and triathlete. He won an Australian butterfly championship in 1957. After a 12-year lapse he resumed swimming in 1976, and running and bicycle riding in 1979/80.

The triathlon consists of a 3.8 km swim, a 179 km bicycle ride and then a 42 km marathon, done consecutively.

"I train 25 to 30 hours a week, around four hours a day," Harry said. "I do about 100 km of running, 400 km of bike riding and 13 or 14 km of swimming. There wouldn't be many people fitter."

"I stopped eating red meat in April 1983. I eat fish about once a week and I occasionally eat chicken. My weight's fairly constant."

Harry smoked for a couple of years but stopped in 1967. He has an occasional drink, but he did not drink while he was preparing for the triathlon.

Comments (from the Cumberland College):

Harry is hardly a typical middle-aged Australian. His profile is outstanding in all aspects. He has an outstanding VO<sub>2</sub> maximum and tremendous recovery and ventilatory efficiency. Harry's commitment and involvement is beyond that recommended for the average Australian. He has a history of high-intensity training and outstanding general potential. These standards are unrealistic goals for most people, particularly in the 40-plus age group.

Test result:

Body fat: 15 per cent.

Musculoskeletal condition: Excellent. VO<sub>2</sub> maximum: 75

Age percentile rank: 100 per cent-plus Treadmill time: 13 minutes 20 seconds

Resting pulse rate: 46

Recovery pulse rate:

After one minute 128

Member Harry Turner told us:

"Probably the best indication of fitness is VO<sub>2</sub> which is the number of millilitres of oxygen which can be consumed by every kilogram of body weight in every minute of maximum exercise. To a large extent, VO<sub>2</sub> is genetically determined, but it also reflects your level of fitness, as it gives a combined measurement of the efficiency of your heart, lungs and muscular system to deliver and use oxygen."

He went on to say: "The average VO<sub>2</sub> maximum for a man between 20 and 30 who takes some exercise is 35 to 45; for a woman of the same age the figure is 30 to 38 (overall, women's values are 20 per cent lower than men's). For this test the subject walks (or runs) on a treadmill initially on a slope of 10 per cent at a speed of 2.7 km/h and increasing every two minutes until the gradient is 22 per cent and the speed 9.6 km/h after 14 minutes or until individual maximum capacity is reached. The best most people can achieve on the treadmill is nine to 9½ minutes.

You'll find Harry round the third floor athletic section keeping himself fit in our own Tattersall's Club. Seek him out and have a chat with him as he is an easy man to talk to. — Ed.
